It is not random what Flamin wrote.
Read the posts in the beginning of this thread.

I mean R315r4z0r was calling alot of people whiners
I'm sorry if you drew that conclusion. I tend to accidentally make it sound like I'm saying something when I really mean to say something else.

The point I was making wasn't that people from exodus are whiners. It was that it seems like whenever an exodus member leaves their forum to post here, it's to complain about someone or something.

That's not saying that they are whiners all of the time... just when they decide to post on these forums.

Since this is the renegade public forum, it might leave a less than desirable reaction in people who have not yet played on the exodus server.
