I'm sorry.

When it hits America, this is gonna be REALLY drawn out.

As well as the fact that almost all of them are going to fail.

It would be an interesting change of pace.

Cosplay cafes originated in Japan. Basically, a cosplay cafe is a cafe in which the waitresses (usually) dress up in cute/attractive costumes in order to draw customers into the restaurant.

We already have those. I believe they go by the name "Hooters".

In the cosplay cafe version of "Hooters" the waitresses actually dress up in owl costumes.

I don't think you really know what you're talking about.
