In southern India, there is a preacher by the name of Dinakaran. You can think of him as our pope. He claims to have "seen" Jesus many times and can "heal" too.

He is the leader of a massive organization known as "Jesus Calls" that reaps enormous financial gains. They even have a "Young Partners" program where parents can "enroll" their children into so they the "taskforce of prayer warriors" can pray for them each day. All for a yearly fee that is.

He is a theiving son of a bitch but thanks to people's idiotic delusional gullibility, he is seen as some grand king. Nobody can criticize him or his family because his fans will immediately come down on you.

I guess this same delusional frenzy all based upon a grand lie gives the same sort of support for the pope.
