Homey wrote on Thu, 16 September 2010 16:27I'd either get a used 4800 series or get a newer one I mentioned before. Personally the 5770 or 5850 would be a good buy. With the pricing scheme as it is now, I would get a GTX 460 for much more performance/dollar ratio than most cards out there.

how come the pricy cards only have one dvi moniter connection?
