

---

Subject: Slow Vid Card...

Posted by General Havoc on Fri, 29 Aug 2003 11:37:10 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

I think this problem comes back to the fact that nearly all the new ATI radeon and all of the GeForce FX cards need an 8x AGP port. People who use these cards in a 4x AGP slot are effectively limiting the performance as the 4x AGP can't offer the bandwidth requirement of the card. If you put a ext generation card into a 4X AGP slot it will work to some extent but the performance will be poor.

---