maytridyWhat do you care if we spam in a thread? JUST IGNORE IT! It's ONE THREAD! We have a little fun, who cares? Why do you have to run around, being the control freak that you are, and lock everything? And I never even directly insulted you :rolleyes: .

Locking one thread isn't locking "everything".

YouWas it you, Ack? You little shit.

Right in your first post. Oh no, you never directly insulted him. :rolleyes:

He's a control freak because he locked one lame-ass spam thread? (Which should have been locked the day after it was created.)
