in a few hours i will have a beta test ready for a map of mine it isnt a proper test so you dont go testing ever thing (but you can if you want to though) at each beta you will be testing different things on the map on the first beta (it was totally private) we tested what tank battle were like around the cliff and results came in good now that the cliff is finished this next beta is what infantry warz are like around inside and ontop of the cliff if you would like to beta test please add Nightma11@hotmail.com to your MSN list or if you dont have MSN contact me on mIRC (the pits channel) (MSN would be better) or post in this topic
