GizbotvasDeathgodFUD tactics have spread to other servers, I see. Good work.

Let us all take time to thank our gods that is not the case. FUD server practices are inexcusable.

This is a different story, Icesword is a foul-mouthed, trash-talking idiot who has this weird sense of entitlement about him. "I'm here so why isn't everyone doing what I say and worshiping me?"

Not only can't we take Icesword seriously, he gets owned in every match I have seen him in. No doubt there is a lot to this story Icesword has left out. I wouldn't even blame FUD for banning him.

Obviously we're quicker on the uptake than you guys, because we banned his ass months ago for doing this kind of shit. Our server practices are hardly inexcusable because they keep people like this out. We just happen to think people like Icesword are a majority instead of a minority.
