jnz wrote on Wed, 27 October 2010 07:26 I'm not entering the LuaPlugin, it was YaLB I was entering. It has never been officially publicly released and I only did it for a bit of fun. I think, however you might find it in my zip file I released ages ago with all my projects in. Anyway I'll leave it up to whoever is judging it, I have plenty of other projects and code I can submit.

I hope you know I wasn't trying to knock you down. Reborn should rephrase that to "yalb was entered which needs lua 5 bundled to run" to clarify more.
