Zotac is doing a beg rebate/sales gig on their nVidia cards. You can get a GTX 460 from them for 129.99 after a rebate!

damn, now its a choice of staying up online or going to a real store!!!

You CAN get that 460 right now.

It's a weekend special though, so you might have to act quick. However, it has 'only' 768MB which means that if you game over 1680x1050, you might want to get a card with 1GB.

Asus also has a GTX 460 on sale too for the same price after rebate.

If you do decide to wait, then good luck! Chances are, you should be able to find a GTX 460 or even 470 for a great price on Black Friday, or an ATI 5850.
