I kind of lost hope in both Japan and everywhere else when HSotD got more attention and hype than Shiki which, Shiki is about the only worthwhile anime this entire year HSotD was only looking promising during the first episode.

Then it dropped dramatically.
Also, have you heard of Bakemonogatari?
Heard of it, it looks pretentious as fuck

also I hate the director, goddamn closeups on everything seen Arakawa and Dance in the Vampire Bund, both had too much of that shit for me to handle

I haven't seen either, but the story line for Bakemonogatari was rather interesting, and the prequel/sequels coming should be good.
I don't really look at directors and the ilk, I judge it based on what I see.
