Here's the problem.

This match is supposed to prove who are the better players at Renegade. Personally, I know you guys are good at the game. I also know I'm good, but not great at it. No one is disputing skill at Renegade. We are disputing which forums are filled with idiots and which ones are not. How will a Renegade matchup settle this dispute?

If we win, will you guys submit to the fact that you're a bunch of retards? If we lose, will we submit that I am a fat bitch and I stole the forums from Westwood and shut down n00bstories?

The answer to both questions is NO. Therefore, matchup is USELESS.
