The Nerf Stampede ECS. When I first saw it, I knew it reminded me of something.

Here is what it looks like (without the blast shield and handle attachments):

Look familiar? It should. After a little thought it finally hit me.

I mean, besides the detail differences at the end of the barrel and the design of the magazine, the two weapons share pretty much the exact same shape!

I just thought that was kinda weird. What do you guys think? (also, Nerf guns rock. If you have a problem with them, then you're a faggot).
