If we are to believe the "Big Bang Theory" then where did the Two giant gas clouds come from? How do you get something from nothing? Where does all matter come from? Where does god come from? If he can just be there without reason, so can the universe.

Quote:Why do so many people feel the need to worship?

1. Why do so many people feel the need to worship SO MANY DIFFERENT THINGS?
2. why do so many people listen to ke$ha? cause dum. k?

Quote:If there is no signifigance to life, no meaning to it, you must reflect that life is nothing more than an experiance that will end, and therefor be a waste of time? do you realize just how dumb you are?

Quote:Are we as humans different to other animals? We have more intelligence and we have higher reasoning. Why are we the only ones? your reasoning seems to be about as high as that one of a giraffe

Quote:If God does not exist, then can someone still hope for better times when in despair? Is hope just a random chance of roulette? There is no universal force of fairness and equality, no Karma?
yes. does that bother you?
