I found this hard when I was doing it.....

I have no idea how to describe this so:

PlanetCnCSabotage the torpedo racks.

Go to the top of the room and enter the doors you find here.

Go to the deck of the ship (just keep walking up) and destroy the Apache here with your Rocket Launcher.

Enter the door and keep going up until you are in the control room. Kill the captain here to get a red keycard.

Only use these when your SERIOUSLY stuck....

It took me like 2hours to find him , first time round but I knew for second time
