Due to the tribute to the fallen Jelly Moderator Spoonplex, it was decided that the scheduled lobby war for this evening was canceled out of respect. I hope it was a great success and I apologise for not being able to attend, I was pre-occupied for the hours when this took place.

However, we will resume our usual schedule tomorrow evening (Sunday, 23rd of January) by participating in our usual lobby wars at the usual time, 8pm GMT 3pm EST @ ts3.thekoss2.org

For the past few weeks now, these lobby wars have been finished rather abruptly after a few maps, and this is not what was expected when organising these games, therefore if it is possible, we will aim to play at least five maps tomorrow evening.

I hope to see you all there.

Regards, Hypnos.
