Wow! I wasn't expecting someone to fly off the handle like that. It's okay, bro - chill. I didn't say anything remotely threatening or argumentative. Adding apostrophes in random places has been a pet peeve of mine... If I was "taking my former role back" I would've called him a fucking retard and said he should go choke on a dick for not knowing where apostrophes go.

/edit

//would also like to know what a "DA" is

///one of my buddies is a DA in St. Pete

////don't break the law
