Over at Reconwarz.tk we are looking for community billboards to post around the race tracks...also we are still looking for a skin artist(using existing skins)to skin recons and characters...come visit us if your interested in being part of the mod team..or even would like to be a beta tester(about a week away).

Visit the forums to apply for the beta or as skin artist...we could always use more mappers and modelers too

Check out the progress page for the current work we have done.
