Thanks for your feedback, the last one where im still working on is a project where i would like to add some vocals yeah. But then i need to look for vocals or record them by a girlfriend of mine (singer).

My style is latin/progressive house, with keep on going instrumentals. My influence is this guy called Alvaro.

His remix of "we speak no americano" had been stolen by Pitbull actually.

I love the snares in that song. Really... I love latin house.
