a short rhyme for pooper troopers of Renegade

If you must be an ass, do it with some class,
placing beacons and the end of a game, thats not playing, thats just lame, stealing tanks from your buddies on the team, you're not a player just a n00b dream, and if you are the ultimate shit, you buy a tank and then hop out of it, leaving it there for the other side, and your team will tan your hide, What is up with all these poops, they are just low class down and dirty troops.
