hee hee 2 things...

1st) over at C&C ammo they actually have 2 skins for the sedan (im usin 1 right now) 2nd)in the renegade editor i found a little shack tthat COULD be used as a jail if i could figure out how to open and close the door i got spawned gdi prisioners in there that open it from the inside...
im not sure if that helps this at all but i figured if u could like make that cop carskin permanant and if you could get the right script than you could use those two things
