EvilWhiteDragon: Spooky is most likely implying that 4.0 isn't coming out anytime in the next decade.

Which is odd since he of most people around here should know what progress is being made. If he doesn't then I suggest him to formally leave the TT team.

Edit: Ah, he is actually not even in the slightest interested in TT. That's funny. Apparently he calls it my or our TT, but not his TT. So Spooky, when can we expect the official resignation letter? I'm looking forward to it, considering your replies.
