No. You randomly find a reason to ban or get rid of people who in your minds are "too good to be true." Though I shouldn't include you in this, since you don't do anything there either way.

I don't do anything? Haha I fucking pay almost $700 a MONTH for the servers that I host for n00bstories and Renegade. How long does it take YOU to earn that much money? Let's just start THERE, even if I never visit a single page on any of my sites, never answer an email, text message, etc, never visit IRC, never check on the servers or fix anything... coming up with $700 a month is a pretty good place to start when you say "I don't do anything". Thankfully, most people actually appreciate it and aren't complete assholes like you. Again, you wonder why we don't want you around?

Quote:Damn, you caught me. You just proved me and everyone else who knows this completely wrong. Damn you're good.

Jarhead is a grown-ass man who has been helping moderate the server and website for YEARS. I *trust* his judgement and don't nitpick on every little decision he makes because I respect him. I don't know why you seem to think that makes me a "tool". Just because the people who help out on the site are mature adults who don't need to be babysat all damn day. We have a great team of people who are empowered to make their own decisions. It took years to get to this point but it's a great place to be. I've been doing this for over 9 YEARS.

I didn't go against his decision because I saw no reason to overrule it.

How about the fact that RG SUCKS, and I was running scripts 4.0 which has an actual anti-cheat system? RG doesn't work on my computer, nor yours apparently. 4.0 however, does. So I was banned because my anti-cheat was too advanced for the simple life of n00bstories mods apparently. How in the hell can you not find a "reason to overrule?" I mean honestly, do you see any sense whatsoever in that decision? AT ALL?

I have no problem with you not using RG, in fact we're in the process of phasing it out. I have a problem with your ATTITUDE and the way you treat people. And you're not making much of a case for yourself on here. I have yet to see anyone defending you.

Quote:Quote:Neither Jarhead or I owe each other any "favors". Where are you getting this stuff? This is rich...

Tell ya what, next time I'm home, i'll get on my computer with the logs and show you. You obviously don't remember because you were so upset that i called you fat. Don't pretend like you weren't neither, you had me banned on this forums because of it, and then unbanned shortly after when you chilled out a bit. Not to mention the whole NS forums situation as well.

You probably misinterpreted something I said. I don't get upset when people call me fat... quite frankly I couldn't care less. As I've said a hundred times before... I am happy, healthy, and I have someone who loves me, so why the fuck should I care what I look like? No one outside of you morons on the internet give a shit what I look like and you cease to exist to me when I close my browser window. It's just not a good way to open up a conversation if you actually want it to go somewhere. Again, it's about your crappy attitude and complete lack of respect. Which you are STILL demonstrating here in this thread. You are a complete and utter piece of shit and a waste of oxygen and until that changes, you will continue to be shunned wherever you go.

I like how you made up a story to make your incorrect use of a word become correct. You need to get out more. The word "tool" is slang for someone who has been made a bitch by someone else. You may disagree that you are indeed this, but the slang term is actually 100% correct...

I am no one's bitch and you have yet to provide any sufficient evidence to prove I am. You obviously haven't held a real job yet (you're like 14 right?). When you empower someone to make decisions on something, you do not thereby become that person's "bitch".

Quote:Quote:

"Asking for a verbal explanation" - and you wonder why you were banned. Those 5 words just scream "I am the type of person you DON'T want around!"

What? Uhm, i was unfairly banned and posted on the forums disputing the ban. I was nice and calm to begin with, until my topic got deleted, and JarHead started removing my rights for no reason at all. Check your admin panel chubbs, it's all there.

Yay - you're back to being insulting again. I'm only even replying because your stupidity amuses me and no one here is even thinking of taking your side. Your attitude shows quite clearly you earned and deserved all restrictions/bans/etc that have been placed on you AND THEN SOME.

Quote:Quote:And you admit that you circumvented your ban.

Again, I am not and was never banned. I simply have my posting rights removed currently, and at the time i was posting, i only had my topic creating and pm rights taken away. I didn't evade or bypass shit...get your facts straight.

Banned from posting, banned from accessing. Are you really arguing SEMANTICS now? You're incredible. If you are banned from posting in a section that CLEARLY doesn't give you the right to post in another section which does not pertain to the subject at hand. And yes, it is evading.

I'm surprised that you still wonder why you were banned. Let me spell it out for you in simple words.

For the third time now, I am not banned. Let me spell it out in simple words for you there now:

I am not

so please learn to

Is that more clear for you?

Well, if you weren't banned, you are now. Go away.
