Azazel said, "I wont be playing against cheaters"

Thought I'd post that here for laughs.

1st page 8th post down.

When you're on Teamspeak - representing/commanding a full community one does not cheat - Infact I spoke to all parties involved and spoke with several captains about the whole situation. The RGCT2 nearly fell apart, but it kept itself together, through the work of a few great indiviguals. I only ever cheated in one server and by god, that was never a CW/AOW server. That's all I'm saying in regard to that.

I'll end on this: HaTe got a well deserved ban - he was pushing for it for long enough, I'm suprised he wasn't banned sooner.
