What's the vehicle exit bug?

The one where you can exit the vehicle in such a way that you could end up inside the bridge in city (if you were in an orca/apache). Would probably be possible in other places, but I'm not sure where that would be.

Ah I see, so basically it isn't casting a ray to make sure it isn't dumping you on the other side of a wall lol. Or the ray has offset issues.
