John Shaft Jr.cowmisfitYou know maby i exagerated a lil with my percents but its not bs is fact and you have your right to your opinin yet i still dont give a damn if ur offended i am offended by your not respecting my views in a thoughtful manner instead of just repling with thats bullshit i'm offended...

I would of take it in a thoughtful manner but it seems like you are judging a whole genre just beacuse of what one artist says. And mostly everything you said is not true. Cause most of all the Hip Hop/Rap and R&B that I LISTEN to does not promote that type of stuff. It seems like to me you are judging those type of genres cause you do not like them. Which you should not do.

True not ALL rap music talks like that i know that but you and i both know that is not what most people who listen to it are listening too... they are not listeing to R&B or soul or what ever you wнна call it i personlly dont mind some R&B such as marvin gay or oldies like the temtations or BB KING... BUT what they are listen to is eminem ludicrist and 50 cent and that garbage and you seeming to be a smart person knows that. I am judging the rap gene ... and yes becase i do not like them.... if you disagree with somethng such as if you hate the kind of music i listen too doesnt that mean you dont like it? I respect your opinion...
