I trust his word more than yours because a) I've known Wilo for much, much longer than you and b) Wilo has showed me what you have done. "Bullying him a little"? You have a funny sense of humour.

I'm done with this thread for now and I'll leave it to both of you clowns. This is an utter waste of time as I have stated my valid reasons not to go into detail on the matter.[/quote] your valid reasons are you have your head up wilos ass as with lots of others and refuse to listen to the true story ..

I have show proof and ss of lots of things to back up my side where is your or wilos proof to backup his lies heres a video of you and wilo .. ps wilos the one with his hand up your ass moveing your lips
