Now I am not calling this person a "pedo" as I really don't have the slightest clue who he is, nor do I care to...

I just thought that it was funny how you think having a wife and children means that someone isn't a pedophile. I'd say there are a lot of child molesters out there that most would consider good family people.

He speaks the trues. More often then not, in these situations, it is actually the wife that reports the husband for being a pedophile. However, in these cases it usually revolves around child pornography and not real physical contact (which I think is completely unjust and unconstitutional but that's another debate entirely)

My point still stands, firmly.

Simon is not a pedo and even though this is online I still find Wilo's actions quite disturbing. I personally wouldn't want to be associated with him in any way, shape or form.

I don't condone Simon's actions, but I think this went a little too far, this is my last message on the subject as I can't really go on discussing this.

Simon: I'd contact Facebook customer support, I wish you and your family all the best.

Yea, your point still stands... ? Just because you come on here and say something doesn't make it truth. You seem to think that when you post your opinion on these forums. Like nobody can question your thoughts, or second guess your opinions. Like you actually have authority or are a respected source of what is right.

It is actually quite amusing, how stupid some people can be.
