If this was facebook, I would deffinately "like" your comment, lol.
You think every bug should have the same priority? Do I understand this right?
If so, why haven't you been busy fixing bugs lately? You're on the team as well. All I've heard you about was some plugin for clients. Not saying it's a bad idea, but there are more important things, like this bug...

Edit: After rereading 3 or 4 times I see what you mean Seye, not sure how I got it mixed it, because it seemed so weird.
