There IS a code of conduct, for all forum users. Try reading it sometime.

Also, if mods banned forum members they didn't like I suspect Gozy would have perma-banned you long ago.

EDIT;

And... who the hell are IGG forums and why do you expect moderators here to follow their rules? Seriously, do you just mash the keyboard randomly or do you actually stop and think about what you're posting?

EDIT 2;

Also, what does this have to do with modifications for Renegade? Try reading the forum description before posting topics in the wrong section. Then again, you probably don't understand the wording since you clearly don't know the English language very well.
