xSeth2k2xAnd yes arguments do kill games if u just bought renegade and saw some of these threads would u still enjoy the boards?

Just so you do know, you don't have to enjoy the boards to enjoy the game. In fact, I'm sure that are loads of people who have no idea that there is a official forum for the game, who still enjoy playing the game online. And even if they do know about it, visiting the forums (although is fun and keeps you informed) isn't required to enjoy the game itself.
