To be sure, join a server via the RR launcher, if it doesn't pop up a message about you not running the game via the launcher, it's running the launcher.

yep i thought the rename thing would make the RR launcher start the game by the TT launcher but for some reason dont work, every time i try to join using RR launcher whit RR off of course, the funy message pop up.

yep i have "use RR" unchecked in order to use TT properly but that doesnt help at all, i am requesting some feedback whit this because i love the RR interface also some servers doesnt display in renlist and mainlly because i used RR for 3/4 years and i miss it lol, if someone could find a way to make it work properly whit the TT launcher i am sure more ppl than just me will be grateful.
