Yeah, it happened to me yesterday acutally. I tried logging into a server, and it froze at the loading screen, but eventually let me in the game...but with 0 KBPS. I left the server and when I was back on WOL, I had no sound or music. The 0 KBPS seems to be consistent with his. Yes I have a crash dump file, but it's in a DMP format or something and I have not had time to open it.
