On Jelly, we don't want to see the name around. People appearantly easily get offended on the internet, and the amount of trolls on Renegade are reasons why.

As for Grant, you're entitled to your opinion, and I'm not at all going to expect at all for you to change that. My opinion, however, differs. I've probably known him better than you, it's a shame you appearantly saw a bad side of him, or got a wrong interpretation.
