how could i forget this one a guy named c4smoke was on ts one day and this kid named robo was talking shit to him for a half hour straight - they started saying they could kick each others asses in real life they found out they live a half hour away from each other, and robo challenged c4smoke to a 1v1 in a CVS parking lot c4smoke accepted and went there, video taping the entire thing trying to find him in tribute to c4smoke myself and some other people made a spoof, but instead at a Walgreens
