BD was a test bed for UDK MP. And while being a test case, it was also a promotional tool.

Had to be pushed out seeing how it was already late for the deadlines set by EA, Valve/Steam, UDK, etc...

All efforts are now being focused towards MP.

Talks of expanding upon SP are now only brought up after MP is out and rolling.

Trust me, I would love to hop into my time machine and fix and expand on everything. But with most game timelines, you are never finished, you simply run out of time.
