I hurt you - you hit back - I hit back harder -you get a baseball bat -I get 20 mates armed with the best weapons and totaly destroy you .

lol thats a joke by the way.

you don't seem to understand; Renegade is like a restaurant, and one of the customers just started throwing punches at other customers entirely unprovoked and slamming their heads down on the dinner tables without reason the restaurant owners are throwing him out and barring him from the premises now you're saying that, because he got himself thrown out of the restaurant and his friends are no longer welcome back, he has a reason to attack and/or retaliate would you say that, if he fire-bombed and blew up the restaurant, that it's justified because the restaurant banned him for being a menace and threatening business?

the catch to all of this is that his friends are always welcome, as long as he's not present
...why don't you ask him to leave both the restaurant, its customers, and his friends alone so everyone can dine in peace?
