He's not a troll, he's an idiot who thinks he knows how Renegade gameplay works and it's coding.

And falcod, if you were against St0rm closing down, then why didn't you do what the rest of the people in st0rm (that mattered) do, which was tell Wilo to "GET THE FUCK OUT" so to speak. Or go with the 2nd option (if you were a staff member) which was leave and stop any further support for Wilo's bullshit.

All of the morons who "support" Wilo were pretty much waiting to get exiled. Wilo is pretty much like Hitler and the community are the Jews waiting to be backstabbed or removed from st0rm when their services are no longer needed.

Do you people not realize none of this shit would of happened if Wilo wasn't such a fucking sociopathic lying son of a bitch who thinks he has so much power over the world of the internet with his e-warrior pride.

When I first entered st0rm and joined the staff, it was actually enjoyable. But when days went on and I learned about the bullshit he was doing, I didn't want to be part of it all. I did not want to administrate a network where the owner attacks other local communities just so he can attempt to gain a playerbase. What's even more sad is certain people in the fucking administration team knew about Wilo's attacks and didn't have the balls to say shit to him. I confronted him. I still remember what I said. "If you truly believe in your members and their ability to make st0rm popular and continue to have a strong playerbase, then you don't need to resort into attacking Jelly". In return he said he would stop. But he didn't, and I stopped giving a shit. Then the whole community war scandal. It's stupid.

Let me break it down:

- MDK never cheated. Wilo fabricated it. MDK was an annoying fucker yes, but he never cheated.
- Wilo used donation funds for other things that are not related to st0rm.
- Wilo DoS'd a community outside of Renegade in defense for Black Widow Gaming when BW-Gaming was at feud with another BW-Gaming for the rights of the name "Black Widow". He DoS'd them and forced them on teamspeak to hand over the name in return, he would stop attacking them.
- Wilo didn't just cheat in 1 map in the community war. He fucking cheated in all of them, even granting our team a load of credits using the server side console commands.
- Wilo lied and blamed my code for his stupid server crashing when in reality it was his fault.
- Wilo tried to cause a scene blaming me for "hacking" their FTP and deleting files off their server box in the #St0rm public channel and didn't even provide any proof that it was me.

- Wilo doesn't have any friends in the federal agency. He's getting information off websites where you can pay $15 to do a background check on someone. It's all social media bullshit and Crimson can tell you that herself.
- In the events that occurred yesterday with multiple users being banned for no reason including myself off the network and website, I opened up as Wilo on the IRC and zlined all network IRC operators but Wilo lied claiming I was ddosing St0rm and flooding the servers. Can't call it hacking when you have access, right?
- Oh lets not forget him lying he has my address and home phone number when I don't even have a fucking home phone. Hey Wilo, I still want to know my home phone number that I don't have you lying piece of shit.
- And did I mention he fucked other girls and messed around while dating his recent ex which I will leave nameless? Not to mention him having nude pictures of female community members of st0rm, one of them being another server owner, hmmm.

You people want to support him? So be it, but that makes you as disgusting as he is. Be careful, he might kill your unborn child and lock you in the closet.

Wilo: Ur so fucking cool man!

Me: You disgust me this is what you're reduced to.

Wilo: Ur no better than me

Me: No. I don't get into people's personal lives.

Wilo: I am going into urs

Wilo: Watch me.

Me: idc try me.

Wilo: And I will do it worse than crim

Wilo: Oh you have no idea.

Me: Whatever. Sociapath. All you do is hide behind your little monitor.

Me: And show off how much of an e warrior you are.

Wilo: Yet I can destroy you from here.

Me: Get mad more over a 500 use renegade.

Wilo: Sad isn't it?

Me: Ya sure. Go kill some more unborn children.

Wilo: That I can crush you from behind a computer

Wilo: Lol, ok

Me: Go ahead and spend your cool 15 dollar background check online.

Wilo: You think I use those?

Wilo: Your funny.

Wilo: cya kid

And "kid" really? Yet we're the same age, go figure.

maybe some one should tell shaitan this lol
