two questions

1. have any of you st0rmians ever bothered asking him? if someone made a serious accusation to me that was 0.000001% as fucking monstrous as that news report, i think i would take the time to say it was entirely false. what wilo said was "oh, so you wanna get personal"... interesting response

how about shoplifting from best buy too

2. answer me honestly, would you give much of a shit if it was true?
