iRANian wrote on Fri, 02 March 2012 08:43tbh it wouldnt really amaze me if shaitan had a similar "episode" like the the one described in that news article, as he's a 35 year old guy living with his parents who makes death threats over the internet, is a known embarrassment in pretty much all renegade communities, acts like a child and is a known liar.

Not to mention his flooding of the MP-gaming MissionDM server and threats to their staff. :/
Why yes I did have a similar experience once. That's why I say back off the guy unless you were there.

Here's a tip on Illinois,US EOP laws you little communist piece of shit: If you live with someone, in some sort of relationship with that someone, and they file one of those on you: you have zero say in any of it. Even if you're the one with pictures/records/witnesses of how you looked.

Awww how cute. I stick to renegade business, and you try to get personal. If I hadn't of fucked my life up over an abusive woman and moved out here, my mother would have been dead when she had her heart attack a few months ago. You're trying to make me feel bad in some manner?

Aren't you banned in st0rm plus Jelly(atomix before as well)? I generally get banned when I get into it with dipshit owners over their abusiveness towards their players/moderators. looks at xpert, wilo, reborn
