December 2005 i got it in a Command and Conquer set for Christmas. I didn't start playing til after the new year though in 2006 hence the "06" in my name.

Fell in love from that moment on even though I had no clue of what i was doing being like 13 years old. I have not stopped playing and it got more exciting with each new thing I found (TS, Forums, Clan Wars) and just making friends with people as I play to make the game more fun!
