IceSword7Sir PhoenixxIceSword7People who talk crap on a game forum but cant back it up on the game they play :rolleyes:

-People who resort to "Yeah so, I can kick your ass." when they lose in an argument.

WO ho ho here we go

You seem to think i lost an arguement.

Not just an argument, nearly every argument that you participate in.

IceSword7

Remind us what the arguement was again? "yea ur an immutire racist who cant type" some arguement.

Ok so im immutire big deal

Ok so you think im racist who cares

Ok so i cant type thats all you can say

Notice I didn't refer to any specific argument. The fact that you keep bringing up this crap about your racism, shows that you know that it is completely true, and that you apparently care.

IceSword7Now lets look at my arguement "you are all 20 30 40 year old loser - n00bs who still play computer games and you cant stand up to a 15 year old when he challenges you to that game."

No, that's not an argument. That's your lame answer to any argument that you're not smart enough to come out on top, which is almost every one you participate in.

IceSword7

You are 20 - 30 - 40 year old losers

You are n00bs

And you cant stand up to me 50 Prox Usmi or the rest of clanwars

I'm 18. The average age for everyone on this board would be around 16-17, there are alot more minors on this board than adults.

So you're going to completely stop playing games within the next 3 years?

IceSword7Now tell me when i lost the arguement?

As soon as you started it.
