AircraftkillerInfinint You know ACK you don?t have to change but remember this... if you don?t your going to get hated even more and will be unwelcome every where there?s renegade and no one will download your maps any more as there already starting to do. So ACK its fine with me that you don?t change cuz frankly you don?t bother me but you are still hated by more and more every day with ever flame trend toward the stupidest things like his model, WHO ever said we where going to use it!!! Who cares if he gets arrested for copyright, im sure you don?t so why do you keep bugging him?? It?s not your problem.

So quit being a jackass to modding n00bs or be kicked out of these forums by the community.

You don't even know what the fuck you're talking about... You know how long I've been around? Three years now, getting on four, in the C&C community. No one has "voted me out" or whatever the hell you're trying to say. For everyone who hates me, there's ten more who know who I am and like what I do. I really don't give a shit if the people who hate me won't download my levels. Spares me the headache of playing with them.

your right ACK i dont have a fucking clue what im talking about.... i think i had too much caffien... but im falling asleep and must go to bed... odd...

there not "levels" there "maps"

GOOD NIGHT EVERY ONE!!!!
