CrimsonDragonFgl'd rather sacrifice my dignity and my pride to do the right thing. Don't care about that kinda stuff. I have the worst guilty conscience of anybody alive I think. If I've wronged somebody it hurts me too that's just who I am

I agree with Kirby, actually... if she's pulling back, you can try and ask her why she's pulling back and see if it's something you are willing to do/change, if not, back out. You'll find someone else. Yeah you're exactly right
