

---

Subject: 9/11

Posted by cowmisfit on Thu, 11 Sep 2003 19:53:23 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

This is a day of remembrance and reflection. I live 15-20 min away from Shanksville where 93 hit in a field and I live 3 hours away from NYC and Washington DC... lots of my friends have parents that were in the Pentagon... none died thank God... my cousin's husband had lots of friends that were in the WTC but they sadly didn't make it.... my friend's neighbor's dad was supposed to fly the one plane that hit the WTC tower but backed off and gave it to some other guy about 2 weeks before... these are just some of the stories I have of that day... I was stunned, saddened but then it turned to anger and still kinda is and anyone who says that Bin Laden and Saddam Hussein shouldn't die for this has no brain or heart and I say to them SCREW OFF> Remember those who died on this day. Reflect on what our nation lost, Reflect on your memories, NEVER FORGET

---