ewd did you even read.....

im trying to get a translation so i dont end up with something wrong.....

if you mean that people here will just say they speak chinese and give me a random character, then yeah i kinda thought of that, obviously i wouldnt take a screenshot and take it to my artist and say here you go, put that on me.

but from most people, i would certainly take any help or contact details i could.

ive been working on a design for awhile, stems from my trip to korea actually, but i dont know anyone with chinese fluency, hence my asking for help. Its not huge and wont fit a script, which is why im going for a short phrase. I have a few in mind, but want them double/triple checked to get the right meaning out of it.

i dont want a phrase book, i want someone to translate :S
