You want jokes, you got em. And mine will actually be funny...

1- Did you hear the Green Bay Packers will no longer be serving beer at home games? Yeah, they lost their opener!

2- The local police here report all of the police station toilet seats have been stolen. True, they have nothing to go on.

3- I complain to my doctor, "I'm mad doctor. the last time I was here, you removed my tonsils, my kidney, and my gall bladder!" My doctor holds up one hand and says, "That's enough out of you!"
