c0vert7 wrote on Sat, 26 May 2012 17:17 Well clearly you have no life if your making multiple topics in multile forums because someone called you a camper.

you will notice that I never create topics such as these but I felt the severe abuse and unjustified attacks by you merited publicity. That's why I started the topics and I have a strong case while you have none.

c0vert7 wrote on Sat, 26 May 2012 17:17 As I stated in the other forum, camping is waiting for an attack so you can stop it.

Defending is stopping an attack, seeing as you had your LT camped at the tunnel entrance WAITING for us to rush you are camping. Its simple if you can only win a game camping tanks and adv soldiers when your fighting free inf you should go try pacman or something.

You will lie so much will you? You make it seem that this magical Light Tank of Starbuzz was waiting the whole game with techs and Saks at the Nod entrance.

I was all over the place, hitting Ref (which you now admit at NS forums that I did), donating to a player so he can get Rocket Officer to hit Ref and increase pointslead, etc etc and falling back to supporting my team with Light.

Do you just want me to get my Light killed so you can have a nice time getting the victory? Not!

c0vert7 wrote on Sat, 26 May 2012 17:17 As for what your doing wrong, is nothing, I never said you did anything, however I did say it was pathetic which im sure you already know that.

that's it then. You have no case. you only used the words "camper" and "camping" because we outplayed you and held on to our points. You hate me now for doing that.

You have yet to explain how my actions with the Light Tank are not legitimate and not appropriate for Renegade. This is all coming down to "sour grapes."

As AK puts it, by not wanting to concede you are wrong, you are setting yourself up to rant on endlessly.

c0vert7 wrote on Sat, 26 May 2012 17:31 I also am sure star is a big boy and can handle answering for himself so not sure what your intentions are in this topic.

when Nune joined the next game, he too could clearly see thru your lies and "sour grapes" to which you said in the chat that I was getting people to help me.
