Intro

Welcome Commanders, although a bit short notice but, this upcoming Saturday we will hold a Dev Night where you can play and talk together with the Developers and Testers of Tiberium Crystal War.

Most of our Developers and Official Testers will be present during this event and we hope to see new players ingame having a good time.

This will probably be the last Dev Night on version 1.40 as 1.50 is nearing completion

Saturday 9th of June @9AM New York Time (UTC-5)
