If he chooses to not do something.. is it because he believes that it is right? or is it just because of a statement? I choose to defend my country against all threats both foreign and domestic, because I believe it is the right thing to do. What do you choose to do? Sit here and argue pointlessly about how you think that Wally is a bad dev leader for simple and stupid shit. It's okay I'll fight for your freedom I'll die for you. Wally has done more in the past couple months then the old team did in 2 years. There I defended him why? because he is a friend and I think that fighting over petty shit like this is childish perhaps you are stuck in 2002 when you should be here in 2012.
